

A Passion

FOR COMMUNITY

THE JEWISH FEDERATION OF GREATER PITTSBURGH

2014 ANNUAL REPORT

The Vision of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh is to have a thriving, vibrant, and engaged Jewish Community. In order to accomplish this we raise and allocate funds and build community locally, in Israel, and around the world.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh will be able to provide the most benefit to our community only if we are true to the following core values:

- We are guided by the teachings of Torah including: tikkun olam (repairing the world), tzedakah (justice), chesed (kindness) and k'lal Yisrael (peoplehood).
- We aim to sustain and meaningfully grow Jewish identity, leadership and involvement in our community.
- Our work will be carried out within the context of cooperation and inclusiveness.
- We recognize the importance of working in concert with others.
- We recognize the human dignity of every individual in the community.
- We care about building a strong community with purpose and involvement.
- We will establish priorities to accomplish our vision and mission.
- We value the beliefs and opinions of all members of our community.

REPORT

FROM WOODY OSTROW AND JEFFREY H. FINKELSTEIN

Italian scientist Galileo said, “Passion is the genesis of genius.” And, as we all know, Galileo took his passion and reached for the stars.

Much the same thing is happening here, in the Pittsburgh Jewish community — both the passion and reaching for the stars. Tireless dedication and fearless innovation drive us, as we work to make ours an ever-stronger thriving, vibrant and engaged Jewish community.

In the Development arena, the Jewish Federation didn't just meet financial goals this year, but undertook new initiatives to position us for future growth. The Annual Campaign met its goal of $13.5 million — with the help of the Giant Eagle Foundation's “Bring it Home” completion grant — and launched several new projects, among them a Women's Philanthropy Mission to Prague and Budapest and the SteelTree Fund, which encourages young adults to make a significant commitment to the Annual Campaign while also making grants with a separate fund of pooled resources.

The Jewish Community Foundation raised $18.5 million in new dollars this year, bringing assets under management to more than $200 million. Included is the Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future, which benefited from a 2014 Foundation initiative, a $1 million matching grant from the a group of generous donors, which brought the Fund to $23 million.

Innovation is critical, of course, but we remain reliant on — and deeply appreciative of — important ongoing sources of funding, most notably the Jewish Healthcare Foundation's block grant of $900,000, which addresses critical social service needs.

Community Building efforts also had their share of innovation in 2014. The Jewish Community Scorecard launched its interactive website filled with data about local services, to create a forum for discussion around directions for the future... The Jewish Federation Volunteer Center launched several new projects, including VOOM (Volunteer Opportunity Of the Month) and I-Volunteer, a partnership with Friendship Circle that engages their alumni in meaningful service opportunities with young adult groups.

The Community Relations Council held an economic summit of Israeli and Pittsburgh political and business leaders and kicked off its Civic Inclusion Fund in partnership with Vibrant Pittsburgh, which resulted in CRC's Urban Affairs Foundation awarding $50,000 in grants to strengthen our city... ReelAbilities: Pittsburgh Disabilities Film Festival, a new initiative of JFilm: The Pittsburgh Jewish Film Forum, explored and celebrated the diversity of the shared human experience.

Partnership2Gether, our community's sister-city relationship with Karmiel and the Misgav region, instituted new programs like the visit of a Robotics Delegation, whose Israeli youth met with peers and connected with hi-tech professionals at institutions like Google... And Holocaust Center innovations ranged from “Music of the Holocaust,” in partnership with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, to Chutz-Pow! Superheroes of the Holocaust, in partnership with the ToonSeum: Pittsburgh Museum of Cartoon Art, which debuted with an exhibit at the Three Rivers Arts Festival.

With passion — and hard work — our community will continue to thrive and grow in its service to constituents and the world Jewish community. With your help and support, the sky is the limit.

Thank you.

THE COMMUNITY WE SERVE

The Jewish Federation engages a broad cross section of community members in raising and distributing funds. By bringing a wealth of viewpoints and expertise to these efforts, we work to ensure that the programs and institutions that enrich our Jewish community remain vibrant and strong. The Jewish Federation is the largest Jewish grant-making organization in our community, helping people at home, in Israel, and around the world. The Federation's Annual Campaign and Jewish Community Foundation embody the values and traditions of our Jewish community. It says that we — as a community — address critical needs today and position ourselves to meet changing needs in the future.

Aging and Human Needs

Federation supports innovative programs and services for seniors, individuals with special needs, families in crisis and others who are vulnerable. That support means, for example, that more seniors will be able to age safely in their homes, thanks to AgeWell Pittsburgh's four new evidence-based initiatives, designed to increase seniors' strength, mobility, memory recall, and prescription management.

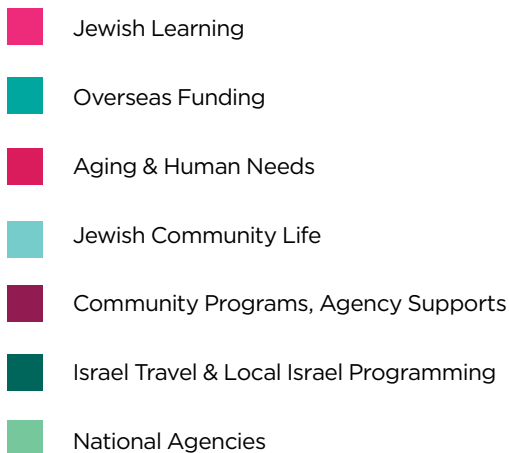

Jewish Learning and Community Life

Federation dollars support all kinds of Jewish learning and engagement — from formal sessions in a Hebrew School classroom, to interactive learning, to immersive experience at an overnight Jewish summer camp, to an expanded PJ Library program, we are able to enrich the lives of our young people by providing them with educational and fun experiences.

Israel and World Jewry

Our overseas work ranges from providing supplemental food and health care services to vulnerable Jews in the former Soviet Union, to strengthening the global Jewish community — and Jewish identities — by involving our youth in educational trips to Israel.

HIGHLIGHTS

DEVELOPMENT

The Jewish Federation continued its development efforts in several areas, providing a wealth of opportunities for donors to strengthen our community and realize their philanthropic dreams in the areas of their greatest passions. This year the Jewish Federation's total financial resource development surpassed $38 million.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

The Annual Campaign reached its goal of $13.5 million, thanks to 4,540 generous donors — including 775 new donors this year — and the Giant Eagle “Bring it Home” completion grant of $125,000.

Exciting new Campaign initiatives this year included:

- SteelTree Fund, a new YAD initiative involving combined Annual Campaign support with endowment support from the Federation's Jewish Community Foundation; donors' annual giving tapped a pool of funding from the Foundation, enabling next generation donors to make a collective impact and also be hands-on with their philanthropy by designating grants with the pooled funding.
- E3: Empowered, Educated, Engaged, a joint effort of Women's Philanthropy and the Young Adult Division. This program involves women meeting in an intimate group for educational, cultural and leadership development programs and already has a waiting list for the second cohort.

Significant growth took place in several Annual Campaign divisions this year.

- Women's Philanthropy grew its campaign as well as its programming in 2014. Several women increased their annual giving and became Lions of Judah (women making a commitment of $5,000 or more in their own names) and Pomegranates (women making a commitment of $1,800 or more). In addition, three women created new Lion of Judah Endowment (LOJE) funds, permanent endowments that will endow their Lion-level gifts in perpetuity. Attendance at Women's programs far exceeded that of past years, from the Lion of Judah Luncheon (63), to Lion Lunch & Learns (55), to the Women's Spring Event (152). Highlights of the year included the annual Women's vs. Pacesetters phonings, a friendly competition that raised a total of $184,904 in two sessions, and the Women's Mission to Prague and Budapest, which engaged 35 women in visiting fascinating sites of Jewish history and culture where Jewish communities thrived prior to WWII and the Holocaust.

3 new LOJEs

9 new Pomegranates

- The Young Adult Division (YAD) and its outreach arm Shalom Pittsburgh held more than 40 successful events this year, including the annual Apples & Honey Fall Festival and Vodka Latke, which each drew more than 400 attendees. YAD added 12 new members to its Ben Gurion Society (donors of $1,000 or more to the Annual Campaign) and celebrated a milestone for its Wechsler Leadership Development Institute, marking its 10th anniversary and celebrating over 200 graduates over the past decade.

2,200 program participants in 2014
12 new Ben Gurion Society members

- Campaign giving societies held several successful programs, such as “A Physician's Refuge,” a joint program of the Maimonides Society (for physicians and dentists who donate $1,800 or more to the Annual Campaign) and the Holocaust Center of the Jewish Federation; more than 120 attended. The Jewish Professionals Network sponsored several programs, drawing more than 100 attendees to events featuring guests as varied as the Mayors of Pittsburgh and Braddock and 2011's Chef of the Year Kevin Sousa.
12 new Maimonides members
11 new Cardozo members, attorneys giving $1,800 or more

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

This year, assets under management in the Jewish Community Foundation topped $200 million. Forty new funds were added to the Foundation, for a total of 1,023 endowment funds overall. The Jewish Community Foundation made grants totaling $500,000 to fund programs and projects that foster a strong Jewish community. Meanwhile, the Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future reached $23 million and made distributions totaling close to $400,000 to strengthen our community by supporting Jewish learning and engagement.

In 2014, Foundation distributions funded such diverse projects as:

- The Jewish Community Legacy Project, which is assisting 20 dwindling congregations in Western Pennsylvania in responsible planning, enabling them to leave meaningful legacies.
- Production of a Prime Stage Theatre performance that will bring Holocaust awareness to middle school children and their families.
- Support for Moishe House Pittsburgh in providing meaningful home-based Jewish experiences to young adults in their twenties.
- Community-wide programs to address behavioral and family health issues in a joint project of Temple David of Monroeville and Jewish Family & Children's Service.

CORPORATE GIVING

Many corporations and businesses provide essential support via corporate event sponsorship that enables the Jewish Federation to devote more dollars to addressing needs in the community. This year over $25,000 was contributed by corporate sponsors.

In addition, $4.4 million was raised through the Pennsylvania Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program and the Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit program. More than 800 needs-based scholarships were awarded for children attending Jewish day schools and pre-kindergarten programs in Pittsburgh and throughout Pennsylvania.

SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING

Jewish Federation professionals work closely with donors wishing to give above and beyond their significant, increased Annual Campaign commitments, to make an additional impact in areas about which they are especially passionate. This year nearly $1.9 million was donated in supplemental gifts, enabling those donors to fulfill their philanthropic dreams while making a tremendous difference in our community, in Israel and around the world.

COMMUNITY BUILDING

From planning initiatives, to an array of programs, the Federation's Community Building area made great strides during 2014 in strengthening our community and positioning us for a strong future. Efforts around community needs included the following:

- Services for seniors expanded with the growth of AgeWell Pittsburgh, a joint program of three Federation beneficiary agencies, the Jewish Association on Aging, the Jewish Community Center and Jewish Family & Children's Service, developed to serve Pittsburgh's aging as effectively and efficiently as possible. In 2013-2014, AgeWell launched four new programs (three of which are evidenced-based): HomeMeds™, a computerized risk assessment screening to help avoid medication problems; AgeWell Rides, a volunteer transportation program; Walk with Ease, the Arthritis Foundation's exercise program, and UCLA's Longevity Center Memory Training Program, a training program designed to enhance memory for caregivers and people experiencing memory loss. Spending about $100 per senior on AgeWell services saves $1,500 per emergency room visit avoided, $9,800 per hospital admission avoided, and $77,000 per nursing home year avoided.
6,000 seniors served
96% maintain/improve independence

- Young people benefited from quality Israel experiences that foster a strong Jewish identity and inspire future engagement with Judaism and the Jewish community. The Federation supports Israel experiences ranging from the Diller Teen Fellows Program, which encompasses leadership training for teens and Israel travel with peers, to Birthright Israel for university students, to Onward Israel, offering internships, service learning, academic courses, and fellowships in Israel for undergraduate and graduate students. Generous Jewish Federation scholarships help make the dream of an Israel experience a reality for local youth.

136 teens visiting Israel
$297,644 awarded in Israel scholarships

- The Pittsburgh Jewish community made great strides in becoming a truly inclusive and welcoming community for some 3,000 people with disabilities — about one in every six local Jewish households. Projects ranged from the publication of a Community Directory providing accessibility and accommodations information from all Jewish institutions, to publication of the Connections newsletter to build awareness about disabilities, to Pittsburgh's first ReelAbilities Film Fest, coordinated by the Federation's JFilm: the Pittsburgh Jewish Film Forum to highlight the lives and contributions of people with disabilities.
3 Connections newsletters

- The Pittsburgh Jewish Community Scorecard launched its website, introducing itself as a metrics-driven tool that focuses the resources and energy of the organized community on actions that can help Jewish Pittsburgh grow. The Scorecard collects data and reviews and interprets community performance and community-building strategies. Its website contains measures of impact in four priority areas: Caring Community, Jewish Education, Common Causes with Others, and Institutional Capacity.
200 measures of impact
2,200 responses to community survey

- A Community Facilities Study spearheaded by the Federation engaged agencies and congregations in Pittsburgh's East End in taking a collective look at current and future space needs and provided a forum for discussions around synergistic opportunities. A workshop was held, and collaboration with a space planning firm is inspiring creative thinking around facility usage and needs.
19 organizations participating
70 workshop participants

Program areas under the aegis of Community Building marked 2014 as a year of great achievement.

- This year, Classrooms Without Borders expanded its program of diverse learning through travel experiences and special events. CWB focuses on "educating the educators" by providing professional development, travel opportunities, and intensive learning seminars to public, private, and charter schools. In addition to educators, CWB includes students in its travel and learning seminars, in order to emphasize their important role in making a difference now and in their futures. Travel opportunities in 2014 included Israel, Poland, and Germany and were preceded by lectures with compelling guest speakers to facilitate a deeper understanding of the history and culture in which the participants would soon be immersed. Upon their return, teachers and students shared their insights with one another, their schools, and the larger community through curriculum development and visual and written exhibits. Here in Pittsburgh, special CWB events open to the public included performances and lectures by scholars. In May, 40 local teachers were subsidized to attend a performance of the play "The Devil's Arithmetic," an adaptation of Jane Yolen's Holocaust novel that included a lecture and question and answer session with the author.

71 participants to Poland

26 participants to Israel

25 participants to Germany

- The Community Relations Council

engaged in diverse activities to educate and advocate for change, locally, nationally and internationally — from a Mission to Washington, DC, to the work of CRC’s Delegate Assembly, which focused on legislation promoting Pennsylvania trade with Israel, Holocaust Education and food security. Israel advocacy ranged from work to counter the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions movement (BDS), to efforts to establish a Pittsburgh-Israel Chamber of Commerce, starting with an economic summit of Israeli and Pittsburgh political and business leaders. CRC’s Urban Affairs Foundation joined with Vibrant Pittsburgh this year to create the Civic Inclusion Fund. And public affairs efforts encompassed two interfaith dialogues, several media placements and the creation of guidelines for anti-Semitic incidents and crisis communications services.

50 speeches/presentations

$50,000 awarded in grants to support diversity

- The Holocaust Center of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh

continued its mission to teach the lessons of the Holocaust in bold new ways. In November, the Center held its annual Kristallnacht commemoration featuring Menachem Kaiser, a writer and recent Fulbright Fellow to Lithuania, where he studied post-Holocaust memory and narrative. In April, 2014, an entire weekend of activities marked Yom Hashoa (Holocaust Remembrance Day), including Music of the Holocaust, in partnership with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra at Heinz Hall, as well as young adult and teen programs at The Andy Warhol Museum, where participants silk-screened items with Holocaust-era symbols and built their own art installation. Chutz-Pow! Superheroes of the Holocaust, in partnership with the ToonSeum: Pittsburgh Museum of Cartoon Art, is resonating with children and teens — and adults — as it tells stories of heroism in the style of comics. The ongoing project has thus far encompassed an exhibit at the Three Rivers Arts Festival, creation of a comic book, and several special events, including a Chutz-Pow! comic book launch party and a booth at Pittsburgh ComicCon.

400 attended Kristallnacht event

1,800 engaged on Yom Hashoa

- The Jewish Federation Volunteer Center

launched several new initiatives this year, including VOOM (Volunteer Opportunity of the Month), which enables volunteers to “try out” something new and learn about a variety of organizations, and I-Volunteer, a partnership with Friendship Circle that engages their alumni in meaningful service opportunities with young adult groups in the community. A Volunteer Mission to Israel took 12 volunteers to our Partnership2Gether region, Karmel-Misgav, to volunteer at three different sites while enjoying an enriching Israel experience. And the Volunteer Center drew 650 to 70 sites for Mitzvah Day and 350 to 5 mega-sites for the international Good Deeds Day.

611 volunteered repeatedly

117 organizations served

- JFilm: The Pittsburgh Jewish Film Forum

offered a variety of programs to enrich, entertain and educate Jewish and general audiences — from Teen Screen, which challenges young viewers to think in new ways about history, tolerance and social justice, to Reel to Real: Generation to Generation, which brings together teens and older adults to watch and discuss films at senior living facilities, to Red String, which engages young adults with special film screenings that encourage an appreciation of emerging filmmakers and Jewish culture. The annual Film Festival brought acclaimed independent Jewish-themed films from around the world to Pittsburgh, while the new ReelAbilities: Pittsburgh Disabilities Film Festival brought together Pittsburgh audiences to explore, embrace, and celebrate the diversity of the shared human experience.

4,272 JFilm Festival patrons

3,723 Teen Screen participants

- Partnership2Gether, our community’s sister-city relationship with Karmiel and the Misgav region, continues building relationships between Pittsburghers and Israelis. Among this year’s highlights were several successful youth engagement programs, including: P2G participation in the Holocaust Center’s Waldman International Holocaust Arts and Writing Competition, which brought Israeli teens to Pittsburgh, where they spoke to students in five local schools and participated in Yom HaShoa programming, and a Robotics Delegation, bringing students from Karmiel-Misgav to meet with peers in local schools and connect with hi-tech professionals at institutions ranging from CMU to Google. In addition, P2G brought Israeli campers from Karmiel-Misgav to the Jewish Community Center’s Emma Kaufmann Camp, sent that camp’s Counselors-in-Training to the region, and brought two interns from Ort Braude College in Karmiel to do research at the University of Pittsburgh Swanson School of Engineering.

HONOR ROLL

The 2014 Annual Campaign raised a record $13.5 million to support programs and institutions that enrich Jewish life here, in Israel, and around the world.

Building upon the tremendous outpouring of support from this amazing community, people in need have received the help they deserve, ensuring that our Jewish community continues to be nurtured and sustained today and for future generations.

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Jewish Community Foundation enables donors to fulfill their philanthropic dreams and leave a legacy that will impact our community in the years and decades to come. Funding made possible by endowments, trusts, bequests and philanthropic funds helps address pressing needs, enrich our culture and strengthen our community – now and into the future.

The Foundation currently holds more than $200 million in assets under management, which encompasses more than 1,000 funds and reflects more than $18.5 million in new money donated during 2013-2014.

UNRESTRICTED ENDOWMENT

The Jewish Community Foundation provides financial resources that support emergency needs, innovative programs and special projects not provided for through annual giving. The Foundation's Grant Making Committee authorizes distributions from the Unrestricted Endowment on the basis of careful review of community needs and proposals for funding.

A variety of needs, programs and services are funded each year, as the Foundation works to advance the Jewish Federation's mission to create a thriving and engaged Jewish community here in Pittsburgh that, in turn, supports Jewish values and Jews in need the world over. This year, grants totaling $500,000 were allocated from the unrestricted endowment, providing funding for the following:

- Purchase of appliances to equip a kosher kitchen in a new group home developed by Jewish Residential Services for residents with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
- Help for the Squirrel Hill Health Center in providing care for those who fall through the cracks of the Affordable Care Act.
- Overseas needs designated by the Federation's Israel and World Jewry Commission ("IWJ") through its intensive assessment of evolving challenges in communities abroad. This block grant is managed through IWJ's rigorous grant making process.
- Support for Moishe House, which creates community among young adults through an array of cultural and social events, including Shabbat dinners and holiday celebrations.
- Adaptation by Prime Stage of the world premiere of "The Devil's Arithmetic," an award-winning young adult novel about the Holocaust.
- Expansion of AgeWell Pittsburgh, to reach more elderly and their families with geriatric support and care management services.

The Foundation also supports a number of projects that build capacity within agencies, organizations and programs serving our community. Among these in 2013-2014 are the following:

- The Jewish Community Scorecard, a community-wide process that involves research and analysis that will ultimately lead to a working document defining what a thriving, vibrant and engaged community looks like, sets goals to get us there and measures our progress toward reaching these goals.

- Development of a program evaluation tool for Classrooms Without Borders which provides professional development in Holocaust education for teachers through study seminars that take place outside in Europe and in Israel.
- Implementation of an electronic health records system for the Jewish Association on Aging, to provide better care for the community's seniors.

DONOR DIRECTED FUNDS

Donors to the Jewish Community Foundation can create a permanent endowment earmarked for a specific program area or agency about which the donor is passionate. He or she thereby ensures that funding will be available to advance that passion in perpetuity.

A Donor Advised Fund, commonly known as a Philanthropic Fund, makes the donor eligible for a tax deduction at the time he or she adds to the Fund — without having to make decisions at that time regarding distributions. At any later date, the donor can recommend distributions to any charitable organization with a 501(c)(3) status.

CREATORS OF VISION SOCIETY

By attaching your name or the name of a loved one to an endowment you've created, you preserve your own, or your family's, legacy in Pittsburgh. In so doing, you ensure that your concern for — and support of — the community will live on. The Creators of Vision Society recognizes those fundholders who have established permanent endowments of $100,000 or more either currently or through a planned gift.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN ENDOWMENTS

A Lion of Judah Endowment (LOJE) is a permanent endowment fund created by a woman to ensure her Lion of Judah-level commitment to the Jewish Federation Annual Campaign ($5,000 or more) in perpetuity. By establishing a fund today — or through a planned gift— a woman can leave an enduring legacy that continues to contribute $5,000 or more each year to the Annual Campaign.

A Permanent Annual Campaign Endowment (PACE) offers a similar opportunity for donors seeking to endow their Annual Campaign commitments in any amount. In this way, donors can ensure that they will continue to care for those in need and nurture and sustain the Jewish community now and for the future.

CENTENNIAL FUND FOR A JEWISH FUTURE

The Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future (“CFJF”) provides immediate and ongoing funding for Jewish learning and engagement — formal and informal education, Israel travel for youth, Jewish summer camping and other important activities that instill a connection to our rich heritage and traditions. By removing cost barriers to high-quality programming, CFJF makes Jewish experiences accessible to everyone.

This year, a generous group of donors committed to supporting a $1 million CFJF matching grant, creating a “Challenge Year” to secure endowment gifts for Jewish engagement and education. The added incentive of matching funds helped CFJF add $4 million to the Fund this year, bringing its total to $23 million.

CFJF funding this year helped expand two already-successful programs. PJ Library, which provides free Jewish books and music to preschoolers, grew its roster of eligible children and offered young families a wealth of programming related to the themes of the materials sent out. Meanwhile, Onward Israel, which engages university students in a summer internship in Israel, doubled the number of participants who were able to avail themselves of an Israel-based resume-building experience.

Other endowment funds within CFJF support educational and engagement programming offered throughout our community, reaching out to a broad range of participants. CFJF funding touches children and teens, young adults to seniors through distributions to Jewish day schools, youth groups, the Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center, the Kollel Jewish Learning Center, Chabad, the Agency for Jewish Learning, Jewish Community Center and the Holocaust Center of the Jewish Federation.

SUPPORTING FOUNDATIONS

A supporting foundation is a separate non-profit entity that coordinates its philanthropy and leadership with the Federation. The Edward & Rose Berman Legacy Foundation
Jack G. Buncher Charitable Fund
Pittsburgh Terminal Corporation
Foundation

PHILANTHROPIC FUNDS

To establish a philanthropic fund, the donor makes an irrevocable lifetime gift of cash or appreciated property, for which the donor receives a charitable tax deduction. In turn, the donor may make non-binding recommendations for distributions of the fund's income and/or principal to charitable organizations they wish to support.

SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING & HONOR ROLL

While maintaining the primacy of the Annual Campaign and its focus on increasing the Foundation, the Federation also continues to develop its supplemental giving program. Supplemental giving is defined as donors contributing a significant financial commitment above and beyond their commitment to the Federation Annual Campaign.

Below we recognize donors who have made a minimum supplemental gift of $10,000 and are currently donors to the 2014 Annual Campaign. The donors are listed based on the community priority area on which their commitment has had an impact.

AGING AND HUMAN NEEDS

Providing an easily accessible, high-quality, complete continuum of care for the aging, the financially and socially vulnerable and those with special needs.

CORPORATE DONORS & SUPPORTERS

Corporate sponsorship dollars help offset costs of programs so that funds raised by the Federation can support much-needed social services in and around the community including efforts that feed the hungry, shelter and care for the elderly, counsel at-risk teens and families in crisis, and assist the unemployed.

Contributing to the Federation enables corporate donors to reach one of the most educated, influential and sophisticated consumer markets. It allows companies to enjoy visibility and exposure to donors via multimedia marketing and event-related benefits.

We are proud to recognize and thank the following corporate contributors. This list includes corporate donors that contributed $1,000 or more and have permitted us to use their names.
