

Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh 2016 Honor Roll

Jewish Federation OF GREATER PITTSBURGH

Revision 9/20/16

VISION

The Vision of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh is to have a thriving, vibrant and engaged Jewish community. In order to accomplish this, we raise and allocate funds and build community locally, in Israel and around the world.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh will be able to provide the most benefit to our community only if we are true to the following core values:

- We are guided by the teachings of Torah, including: tikkun olam (repairing the world), tzedakah (justice), chesed (kindness), and k'lal Yisrael (peoplehood).
- We aim to sustain and meaningfully grow Jewish identity, leadership and involvement in our community.
- Our work will be carried out within the context of cooperation and inclusiveness.
- We recognize the importance of working in concert with others.
- We recognize the human dignity of every individual in the community.
- We care about building a strong community with purpose and involvement.
- We will establish priorities to accomplish our vision and mission.
- We value the beliefs and opinions of all members of our community.

2015-16 SUMMARY FROM CYNTHIA D. SHAPIRA AND JEFFREY H. FINKELSTEIN

The earliest Jews in Pittsburgh recognized the power of the collective. These pioneers formed civic associations to aid Jewish immigrants and to help each other establish businesses, synagogues and charities.

Today, our Jewish community still benefits from doing good — together — for the Jewish community. That collective action will unite us and secure our future as Jews.

This year, Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh emphasized harnessing the wisdom of our leadership and the generosity of our donors to work toward empowering a culture of inclusiveness and excellence.

At the heart of this strategy, recognizing that we will remain strong if we remain united, we will renew our commitment to Jewish continuity. We will work to ensure that the next generation of Jewish youth identifies as Jewish adults.

The urgency of this commitment has resulted in blossoming innovation: new approaches to early childhood education through the expanded Jewish Early Childhood Education initiative; Dynamic Vision for the Active Study of Hebrew (DVASH), a program to improve Hebrew teaching for all kids while improving inclusion of children with disabilities; reorganization of Jewish teen education to increase effectiveness; renewal at our Jewish day schools, which continue to attract students from across the United States; and expanded Israel experiences with Birthright Israel, Onward Israel and MASA Israel Journey.

This strategic renewal relies on you. The collective power of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh — volunteer-led, philanthropist-funded — literally would not exist without your generosity and hard work.

Your Jewish Community Foundation contributions will support a new study of Pittsburgh's Jewish community, the first such study in 15 years. The study will provide up-to-date demographics and a needs analysis, helping the community make sound, data-informed decisions over the next decade.

Working as one, we will find new ways to do what Jewish Federation does best: finding solutions to complex problems that require broad community support.

These solutions continue to uncover ways to leverage our collective power: uniting human services agencies through AgeWell Pittsburgh, which helps aging adults stay independent; reaching out to help through the Jewish Federation Volunteer Center, which mobilizes more than a thousand volunteers on Mitzvah Day; and through Partnership2Gether, connecting Pittsburghers to our sister region in Israel, Karmiel-Misgav, to nurture economic development, human services and Jewish-Arab coexistence.

Thanks to your support and a generous $170,000 dollar-for-dollar matching grant from the Giant Eagle Foundation, the 2016 Annual Campaign raised $13.65 million. This year, 4,150 donors contributed to the Annual Campaign. The Jewish Community Foundation added $18.8 million in new dollars in 2015-16, resulting in assets under management of nearly $219 million. Participation in the state's Educational Improvement Tax Credit program secured $3.42 million to support Jewish day schools and preschools, a decline from last year due to lower tax liability for some donors, state budget delays and the sale of a large corporate donor.

The Jewish Healthcare Foundation (JHF) contributed a $900,000 block grant for social services. Our sincerest thanks to the JHF for continuing support.

This amazing outpouring of your financial support, so necessary to continue Jewish Pittsburgh's growth, is but one element of our collective power. Leveraging your brainpower and your hard work continues to build a foundation for the future — in Pittsburgh and around the world.

The power of the collective can help us reach every individual in our community. Join us — a dynamic, united force — as we come together to deliver excellence in Jewish Pittsburgh into the next decade and beyond.

Looking forward to working with you toward a vibrant, joyous future,

THE FEDERATION'S FINANCIAL RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT

The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh is the central fundraising and planning organization for the Pittsburgh Jewish community. The Federation engages in a wide range of financial resource development efforts to ensure a stream of funding that will help the community remain strong and vibrant.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Federation programming offered through the Young Adult Division, Women's Philanthropy and Men's Philanthropy enables donors to take part in a wide range of meaningful learning, leadership development and volunteer activities. Such engagement leads to community commitment to the Annual Campaign — commitment from donors in their philanthropy and in their hearts.

JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Jewish Community Foundation enables donors to fulfill their philanthropic dreams and leave a legacy that will impact our community in the decades to come. Resources made possible through endowments, trusts, bequests and philanthropic funds help address pressing needs, enrich our culture and strengthen our community now and into the future.

Donors to the Jewish Community Foundation work with Foundation professionals to choose a vehicle suited to donors' circumstances. Such a vehicle could be an annuity that provides payments during the donor's lifetime; a life insurance policy; a permanent endowment; or a donor-advised fund, which serves as a low-cost philanthropic fund with tax advantages.

The Foundation's Centennial Fund for a Jewish Future (CFJF) provides immediate and ongoing financial resources for Jewish learning and engagement. CFJF funds formal and informal education, Israel travel for youth, Jewish summer camp, and other activities that connect youth to our rich heritage. By removing cost barriers to high-quality programming, CFJF makes Jewish experiences widely accessible.

CORPORATE GIVING

Many corporations and businesses provide essential event sponsorship that enables the Jewish Federation to use Federation dollars to address community needs.

In addition, the Federation raises funds through the Pennsylvania Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program, the Educational Improvement Pre-Kindergarten program and the Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) program. Participation in these programs results in needs-based scholarships that allow children to attend Jewish day schools and pre-kindergarten programs in Pittsburgh and elsewhere in Pennsylvania.

SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING

Jewish Federation professionals work closely with donors who wish to give above and beyond their major donor-level Annual Campaign commitments to make an impact in areas they feel especially passionate about.

FUND DISTRIBUTION & PLANNING

The Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh, the largest Jewish grant-making organization in Pittsburgh, helps people in Western Pennsylvania, in Israel and around the world. The Federation works with direct-service agencies to address current Jewish needs and to plan for the future.

The Federation engages a broad cross-section of community members in the funding process, bringing a wealth of viewpoints and expertise to ensure that the programs and institutions that enrich Jewish community remain strong and vibrant.

Funding and planning efforts focus on three areas of need:

- Aging and human needs. Federation efforts help its partners provide services to seniors, individuals with special needs, families in crisis and others who are vulnerable.
- Jewish learning and community life. Federation planning and funding result in a range of programming. Examples include formal sessions in a Hebrew school, experiential learning, and immersive experiences at overnight Jewish camps.
- Israel and world Jewry. Federation's contacts provide quick emergency response (food and health care to Jews in Europe) and long-term Jewish-identity initiatives, such as educational trips for youth and cultural exchanges with Israel.

COMMUNITY BUILDING THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS & PROGRAMMING

As a convener of Jewish agencies and other organizations that share in mission, the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh forms synergistic partnerships to address communal needs.

For example, each of three beneficiary agencies of the Federation — Jewish Association on Aging, Jewish Community Center of Greater Pittsburgh (JCC) and Jewish Family & Children's Service — offers distinct services to Pittsburgh's aging individuals and their families. With Federation support the three agencies work under the umbrella of AgeWell Pittsburgh. The result is coordinated case management that enables many elderly people to remain safe and healthy in their own homes. Per senior, $100 of spending on AgeWell services saves $1,500, if services allow the senior to avoid an emergency room visit; $9,800, if AgeWell helps the senior avoid hospital admission; and $77,000, if he or she can stay at home for a year rather than in a nursing facility.

Another community-building endeavor, The Pittsburgh Jewish Community Scorecard, enables local service providers to assess and address needs jointly. The Scorecard, a metrics-driven initiative, collects data and facilitates review of community performance. The goals of such review are using resources efficiently and identifying actions that will help Jewish Pittsburgh grow.

In addition, Federation programs, initiatives and affiliates offer community-building programs and services. Examples are:

- Classrooms Without Borders (CWB) offers Jewish learning through travel and special events. CWB focuses on “educating the educators” about Israel, the Holocaust and Jewish history. CWB also sponsors speakers and cultural events for the community and the public.
- The Community Relations Council (CRC) educates and advocates for change locally, nationally and internationally. Programs have included missions to Washington, D.C.; Israel advocacy training; an economic summit of Israeli and Pittsburgh political and business leaders; and interfaith dialogues. CRC’s Delegates Assembly convenes representatives from local Jewish organizations to reach consensus on issues significant to the Jewish community. CRC’s Urban Affairs Foundation supports initiatives that strengthen the community and region.
- The Holocaust Center of Pittsburgh provides programs to commemorate and memorialize the Holocaust and its victims and to teach the tragic lessons of the Holocaust. The staff of the Holocaust Center works with educators to create age-appropriate curricula and innovative ways of teaching tolerance.
- The Jewish Federation Volunteer Center matches volunteers with community agencies and the organizations that need them. On Mitzvah Day, an annual event that the Volunteer Center plans, more than 1,000 volunteers serve over 80 sites in the Pittsburgh region. Ongoing Volunteer Center options include VOOM! (Volunteer Opportunity of the Month), which enables volunteers to try a volunteer task without making a long-term commitment; volunteer missions to Israel; and projects designed for small groups.
- Partnership2Gether (P2G) celebrates the Pittsburgh Jewish community’s sister-city relationship with Karmiel and the Misgav region of Israel while building enduring relationships. P2G engages youth by bringing Israeli teens to Pittsburgh and sending counselors in training, from the JCC’s Emma Kaufmann Camp, to Israel. P2G supports regional development that helps build and strengthen Karmiel and Misgav.
- South Hills Jewish Pittsburgh increases opportunities for Jews in Pittsburgh’s southern suburbs to engage in Jewish activities. The initiative works in partnership with South Hills synagogues and the JCC.

SUPPLEMENTAL GIVING HONOR ROLL

While maintaining the primacy of the Annual Campaign and its focus on growing the Jewish Community Foundation, the Jewish Federation continues to develop its supplemental giving program. This program engages donors in contributing significant financial commitments above and beyond their commitment to the Federation's Annual Campaign.

The lists that follow recognize donors who, in addition to their commitment to the 2016 Annual Campaign, have made a minimum supplemental gift of $10,000. Listings show the area on which each donor's commitment has made an impact.
