

ISRAEL SCHOLARSHIPS

Get $1,750!

To use towards an approved Israel trip*

How can I claim this money?

With just 3 easy steps!

1. Receive acceptance to an approved Israel study program.*
2. Complete an application and interview
3. Once approved, the $1,750 will be sent directly to the program provider.

To claim your $1,750, visit
www.jfedpgh.org/IsraelScholarships

Need-Based Israel Scholarship

If you have demonstrated financial need apply for the Need-Based Scholarship to obtain up to $3,000 in additional scholarship funding.

Apply at
www.jfedpgh.org/IsraelScholarships

Questions?

Call 412.681.8000 or email info@jfedpgh.org

Combine the $1,750 with Passport to Israel matching dollars for up to $2,550 in funding for an approved trip to Israel!*

To claim your free money, visit

www.jfedpgh.org/IsraelScholarships

*An approved Israel trip must be: 1) educational in nature 2) organized by an educational institution or religious institution 3) staffed by qualified personnel and 4) a minimum of three weeks, with the exception of approved trips from a Jewish day school. Birthright and family trips are not applicable.

The Israel Scholarship Program is funded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh's Annual Campaign, with additional funding for need-based scholarships funded by The Stanley and Flo Mae Moravitz Israel Scholarship Endowment Fund of The Jewish Community Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh.

The Passport to Israel program is funded by the Sholom Comay Family Endowment Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh.

For complete eligibility requirements contact the Israel Scholarship program administrator at 412.681.8000.

Jewish Federation
OF GREATER PITTSBURGH

Jewish Community
Foundation